

The Holy Spirit

----- Discussion -----

1. Did you grow up talking about and/or being exposed to The Holy Spirit? (Yes or No) ... And do you think this affected your ability to be 'open' and receptive to Him later on in your life as a believer?

When the person of the Holy Spirit is mentioned in the Bible, it's translated from one of 2 words:

- The OT Hebrew word is Ruach (roo-akh)
- The NT Greek counterpart is Pneuma

The basic definition for both of these words is _____, _____, or _____.

The earliest mention of the Holy Spirit in the Bible: Genesis 1:2

The Holy Spirit clearly existed and was active in both the Old & New Testaments. However, it's important for us to understand that since the time of Jesus' resurrection and the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2), He works _____ than He did in every previous generation.

PRIOR TO THE DAY OF PENTECOST, the Holy Spirit 'came upon' specific people for a specific time, to enable them to carry out various specific tasks for God:

- He guided prophets and authors of Scripture Num 11:29, 2 Sam 23:2, 2 Peter 1:20-21
- He moved people to trust and obey God, including people outside the nation of Israel: Ex 18 (Jethro the Midianite), Joshua 2 (Rahab), Ruth 1-4 (Ruth the Moabite), and others.
- He came upon the primary craftsmen who led the design and construction of the tabernacle (Exodus 35:31 - Bezalel)
- He came upon kings and judges to give them special wisdom or extraordinary power: Numbers 27:18 (Joshua), Judges 3:10 (Othniel), Judges 6:34 (Gideon), Judges 15:14 (Samson), I Samuel 10:9-10 (Saul), I Samuel 16:13 (David), and many more ...
- Mary became pregnant (Matt 1:18), Simeon was led to the temple (Luke 2:25-35)
- The Holy Spirit was also active in Jesus' life and ministry! Descending on Him at baptism (Matt 3:13-17), leading Him into the wilderness to be tempted (Matt 4:1-11), empowering Him for ministry (Acts 10:38), and ultimately raising Jesus from the dead (Romans 8:11).

The Holy Spirit also removed Himself from individuals – especially those who became disobedient to God:

- Saul (I Sam 16:14), Samson (Judges 16:20), David (2 Samuel, ch 11&12)
- David cries out to God; "Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me" (Psalms 51:11).

SINCE THE DAY OF PENTECOST however, we have a more full experience of the Holy Spirit's presence – because He lives WITHIN those who follow Christ! (John 14:17)
